PROFILE

Senior programme leader with over 20 years in the technology industry, including 10+ years leading complex, multi-workstream transformation programmes across public sector, regulated, and commercial environments. Regularly engaged to step into complex or at-risk programmes, quickly assess current state, and bring structure, momentum, and accountability back to delivery. Known for calm, decisive leadership under pressure — building trust with senior stakeholders, leading project managers and workstream leads, and driving outcomes in fast-moving, ambiguous environments.

LEADERSHIP PHILOSOPHY

I lead by creating clarity and removing barriers so teams can do their best work. With project managers, my focus is building their confidence and capability — coaching them to own their delivery, make good decisions under pressure, and grow as practitioners. I believe strong outcomes follow when leaders invest in their people first.
